READING ROOM NEWS

In the first week of every month, Nancy Carroll will print out a What's New list of books. You will find this monthly list in the white plastic file container on the table. This printed list will summarize the subject of a number of the books that have been donated over the past month. November's List will be books received in the month of October. Please take the list home to your apartment and see if there might be something that interests you to read. The Book Briefs Binder will be updated monthly. This will be an extensive list of books you can find in our Reading Room separated by genre.

Thank you for submitting suggestions to add to our Reading Room collection.
