READING ROOM NEWS

We often get asked about NEW RELEASES, and YES we get several each month. Here are the many ways you can find a new release in the Reading Room: 1) each book has a bright colored label and you will see two numbers on each label that lists the copyright date 25 = 2025 [a new release]; 2) What's New bulletin lists several books brought in the previous month, many are newer copyrights; 3) Book Briefs binder lists books according to genre and the ones listed towards the end of each section are usually the newest ones we've received.

New Learning Opportunity Coming in March . Mind Fitness with Mark Schoepp.

Mark will be offering RosePointe a series of classes. The first class on March 22 at 1:00 in the Towne Hall. The class is called "Brain Gain—The Brain and Nutrition." Being Better Stewards of our Bodies. There is much to learn from current brain research about health and wellness. This presentation will look specifically at the brain and nutrition. It will share current brain research and how that info can help us be more intentional about how we 'feed' our brains and the impact that can have on long term health and avoiding or reducing the impact of various brain challenges.
